	Περίληψη Πρόσκλησης:	Advanced Grants are designed to support excellent Principal Investigators at the career stage at which they are already established research leaders with a recognised track record of research achievements. Applicant Principal Investigators must demonstrate the ground-breaking nature, ambition and feasibility of their scientific proposal. Size of ERC Advanced Grants Advanced Grants may be awarded up to a maximum of EUR 2 500 000 for a period of 5 years. The maximum award is reduced pro rata temporis for projects of a shorter duration. This does not apply to ongoing projects. However, up to an additional EUR 1 000 000 can be requested in the proposal to cover (a) eligible "start-up" costs for Principal Investigators moving to the EU or an Associated Country from elsewhere as a consequence of receiving the ERC grant, and/or (b) the purchase of major equipment, and/or (c) access to large facilities. As any additional funding is to cover major one-off costs it is not subject to pro-rata temporis reduction for projects of shorter duration. All funding requested is assessed during evaluation. Profile of the ERC Advanced Grant Principal Investigator ERC Advanced Grant Principal Investigators are expected to be active researchers and to have a track record of significant research achievements in the last 10 years which must be presented in the application. There is little prospect of an application succeeding in the absence of such a record, which identifies investigators as exceptional leaders in terms of originality and significance of their research contributions. Thus, in most fields, Principal Investigators of Advanced Grant proposals will be expected to demonstrate a record of achievements appropriate to the field and at least matching one or more of the following benchmarks: 10 publications as main author (or in those fields where alphabetic order of authorship is the norm, joint author) in major international peer-reviewed multidisciplinary scientific journals, and/or in the leading international peer-reviewed journals and peer-reviewed conferences proceedings of their respective field; 3 major research monographs, of which at least one is translated into another language. This benchmark is relevant to research fields where publication of monographs is the norm (e.g. humanities and social sciences). Other alternative benchmarks that may be considered (individually or in combination) as indicative of an exceptional record and recognition in the last 10 years: 5 granted patents;

10 invited presentations in well-established internationally organised conferences and advanced schools;
3 research expeditions led by the applicant Principal Investigator;
3 well-established international conferences or congresses where the applicant was involved in their organisation as a member of the steering and/or organising committee;
International recognition through scientific or artistic prizes/awards or membership in well-regarded Academies or artefact with documented use (for example, architectural or engineering design, methods or tools);
Major contributions to launching the careers of outstanding researchers;
Recognised leadership in industrial innovation.

	Περίληψη Πρόσκλησης:	Establishing Regional Co-ordination Groups to replace the (annual) Regional Coordination Meetings represents a big step for Member States. Building on the first call for proposals launched in 2014, this call for proposals aims to further support projects to enable Member States to build up experience in new areas of: (i) regional (in case of biological data) and (ii) EU wide (in case of socio economic data) cooperation along the possible evolutions set out above. The purpose of this call for proposals is to provide Member States with the tools to accomplish regional/EU coordination but not to finance on a recurrent basis such activities. So far, different RCMs have advanced at different speeds with regards to regional cooperation. The grants are meant to help each region (in the case of biological data collection) proceed with the realization of the regional sampling plan in the specific RCM aspects that need to be finalised. In this regard, it is not intended to support activities which already take place as part of the current RCMs/ PGECON or developments of regional data storage that are currently covered in other agreements. Therefore, the deliverables of these grants should not be a compilation of existing work – carried out in ongoing or finalized studies, scientific working groups of end users, such as ICES and STECF - but should demonstrate novelty and added value and be complementary to the existing accomplishments. The regions and topics covered by this call for proposals are the following: a) Biological data: the Baltic Sea, the North Sea & Eastern Arctic, the North Atlantic Ocean, the Mediterranean & Black Sea, as well as fisheries in external waters (Large pelagic fisheries and long distance fisheries on demersal and small pelagic stocks) , and b) socio-economic and environmental data collection on fisheries, aquaculture and processing industry for all EU regions and fisheries. This call for proposals may cover 4-7 grants, depending on cooperation between sea basins. As in the first call for proposals launched in 2014, cooperation between adjacent sea basins is strongly encouraged. The grants cannot take place in the same region for the same subject (as defined above). However, the applicants receiving each grant should coordinate their work to ensure, as far as possible, that the outputs produced are compatible among the regions in which the projects take place.

	Περίληψη Πρόσκλησης:	As part of efforts to promote the use of space technologies in ESA Member States, an Open Call for Technology Transfer Proposals ("Technology Transfer Demonstrator Competition 2017", hereinafter called "Demonstrator Call") has been opened. VERHAERT has been entrusted by ESA to set up, implement and manage it. The Technology Transfer Demonstrators are directed specifically towards the determination and elimination of technical risk particular to the new terrestrial application. The Open Call allows 7 projects of both space and non-space organizations or individuals to submit proposals to develop technology transfer demonstrators. This call is open for all ESA member states. Through this Call, VERHAERT invites applicants to request funding up to 38.000 euro to develop a demonstrator regarding the transfer of a space technology into a non-space application. The projects should be executed in maximum 6 months. In order to apply for this call, please send your submission towards spacetechnology@verhaert.com, please fill out the form below to download the application template. Before sending out your submission please carefully read the following documents: Terms of Participation Draft Contract

	Περίληψη Πρόσκλησης:	Topics called: RFCS-01-2017: Coal Research and technological development constitute a very important means of supporting European energy objectives with regard to the supply of European coal and its competitive and environmentally friendly conversion and utilisation. Moreover, the growing international dimension of the coal market and the global scale of the problems confronting it means that the European Union has to take a leading role in meeting challenges relating to modern techniques, mine safety and environmental protection at worldwide level by ensuring the transfer of know-how required for further technological progress, improved working conditions (health and safety) and enhanced environmental protection. Proposals submitted under this topic must relate to one of the following research objectives: Improving the competitive position of Community coal Health and safety in mines Efficient protection of the environment and improvement of the use of coal as a clean energy source Management of external dependence on energy supply RFCS-02-2017: Steel With the general aim of increasing competitiveness and contributing to sustainable development, the main emphasis of research and technological development is on the development of new or improved technologies to guarantee the economic, clean and safe production of steel and steel products characterised by steadily increasing performance, suitability to use, customer satisfaction, prolonged service life, easy recovery and recycling. Proposals submitted under this topic must relate to one of the following research objectives: New and improved steelmaking and finishing techniques RTD and the utilisation of steel Conservation of resources and improvement of working conditions
